Dear Mr. Gromicko:

The real estate continuing education course entitled "What Every REALTOR Needs To Know About Inspections," 8 hours, has been approved for real estate elective continuing education credit.

Attached is a course evaluation form that must be completed by the students at the end of the course. A summary of the evaluations, including all comments, must be returned to our office along with the attendance rosters of those licensees that complete the course.

Please be advised that course approval is good until March 2, 2009, at which time you will be required to submit a new application and attach required documents.
