Free Shipping and $9.95 Company Logo Shirts

Wilmington, NC – The Queensboro Shirt Company is pleased to announce a special offer for members of the National Association of Certified Home Inspectors (NACHI). For a limited time, NACHI members will be able to enjoy free shipping on their first order. We are also reducing the price on one of our most popular polos – the Fine Washed Pima Jersey Polo (1485).

The Queensboro Shirt Company was founded in 1982 and is one of the nation's leading providers of high-quality, low cost embroidered apparel and accessories. Queensboro offers low 4-piece order minimums, free embroidery of standard-sized logos, and an industry-unique Unconditional Ten-Year Guarantee on every product sold.

With a fully taped neck, a jersey "self-fabric" collar, and a classic two-button placket, our Fine Washed Pima Jersey Polo has a contemporary look that makes a positive first impression whether you're inspecting homes or on the golf course. Since it's much lighter and softer than the average department store polo, it'll provide extra hours of sensational comfort in all environments. Double-needle tailoring ensures that you'll be experiencing that comfort for years to come.

We regularly sell these polos for $12.50 each. You can easily spend $25 to $40 in the stores and get a lesser quality shirt, perhaps even with someone else's logo on it! Try just four of our shirts, however, and NACHI members will get them at an introductory price of just $9.95 each with your custom-embroidered logo. And we'll throw in free shipping with your order!

To take advantage of this special offer, NACHI members are encouraged to visit us at <http://www.queensboro.com/nachi74>. In order to receive the free shipping and discounted rate, members must use the link as provided.
