

Enrollment Agreement for the Associate Degree in Home Inspection Program

We are excited that you are considering applying to InterNACHI! We tried to make this process simple. If you have questions, know that the entire staff is here to help.

Join InterNACHI as a Member

An individual must join InterNACHI as a member in order to:

- receive access to InterNACHI's online courses and membership benefits (online at no additional cost for members);
- enroll in any certificate program (online at no additional cost for members); or
- enroll in the Associate Degree Program (online at no additional cost for members).

An individual may join InterNACHI by completing an online membership form, which requires the student's name, company name, address, email, phone number, desired username and password, credit card information, last four digits of their U.S. Social Security number, and a membership fee.

A member intending to enroll in the Associate Degree Program is required to:

- be a high school graduate (or equivalent);
- complete and submit an Enrollment Agreement; and
- write and submit a statement of goals (300-500 words), which is a reflection of the academic, professional, and personal goals the member would like to achieve through their studies at InterNACHI University.

Membership Fee

And individual may enroll in a course or program at any time after joining InterNACHI as a member at www.nachi.org/join. The membership fee to join InterNACHI is $49 per month or $499 per year. To continue to enjoying unlimited access to online courses and programs, a member must renew their membership.

Enrollment Agreement for Associate Degree Program

All members intending to enroll in the Associate Degree Program are required to complete and submit an Enrollment Agreement. Download a student enrollment agreement sample. This will be the agreement upon attaining accreditation. The enrollment agreement outlines the terms of the membership, enrollment requirements, and financial obligations. This online agreement can be electronically signed and submitted to InterNACHI.

The certificate and degree programs are available online to InterNACHI members for no additional cost. The individual first joins InterNACHI, and, second, enrolls in the program of their choice. There are no other fees (other than the membership fee) required to complete a course, a certificate program, or the degree program. There are no prerequisite training courses for enrolling in any of our online courses, certificate programs, or the degree program.

In order to attain any degree-earning credits or complete any certificate or degree program, the individual must provide official transcript(s) from previous institutions as required by InterNACHI.

InterNACHI will maintain official college transcripts on file from the accredited institutions granting the credit to the student.

Graduation Requirements

To receive an Associate Degree in Home Inspection from InterNACHI University, an individual must:

- be a member of InterNACHI;
- attain 60 SCH from InterNACHI, including the completion of the degree-specific education courses listed at nachi.org/catalog.htm#degreeprogram;
- correct any and all deficiencies in the member's record; and
- achieve an overall GPA of 2.677 (Letter Grade of B-).

Academic Calendar

A student's academic term is simply the individual's membership term. For example, if an individual joins InterNACHI for one year, the student's academic term is one year. If the student does not complete the intended course or program within that term, the individual must renew their membership to extend the time they provide themselves to complete the course or program.

In order for an individual to begin an online course, certificate program, or degree program at InterNACHI University, the individual must join InterNACHI as a member of the trade organization. The start and end dates of the member's academic term is directly related to the date that the individual joined InterNACHI as a member. If an individual joins InterNACHI as a member for one year, the academic calendar starts on the day that the person joins InterNACHI and lasts for one year.

In order to complete a course or program after joining InterNACHI, the individual must maintain their continuous membership in InterNACHI. The individual may self-renew their membership in order to continue their education.

Continuous Enrollment

All students are required to maintain continuous enrollment throughout their course and program. That means that the student must be a member in good standing of InterNACHI continuously throughout their academic term, while they are enrolled in an online course, certificate program or degree program. Any student who does not successfully complete a course or program during their academic term must re-apply for membership to InterNACHI.

Illness Policy

InterNACHI's online courses are open to all students, can be taken from anywhere, at anytime, and can be taken again and again without limit.

Course Cancellation

A member may, at any time, cancel enrollment in any course or program simply by canceling their membership in InterNACHI. The individual can visit nachi.org/cancel to cancel their InterNACHI membership, and, thereby, cancel their enrollment in all online courses and degree and certificate programs offered by InterNACHI. No credit is provided to any student who does not successfully complete a course.

Course Retake

An individual may enroll and retake a course at anytime by renewing their InterNACHI membership at .nachi.org/selfrenewalsystem to access the course.

Refund Policy

There are no tuition refunds, because there is no tuition cost. A member may cancel their membership at anytime by visiting www.nachi.org/cancel. A member has five calendar days after joining to cancel their membership for a full refund of all membership fees paid to InterNACHI by contacting Lisa Endza, Director of Communications at lisa@internachi.org. Upon withdrawal or termination, the student will not be issued a Certificate of Completion for any incomplete course or program, and no Continuing Education credits will awarded.

Course Enrollment Cancellation

A member may, at any time, cancel enrollment in any course or program simply by canceling their membership in InterNACHI. The individual may visit nachi.org/cancel to cancel their InterNACHI membership, and, thereby, cancel their enrollment in all online courses and degree and certificate programs offered by InterNACHI. No credit is provided to any student who does not successfully complete a course.

Course Withdrawal

A student can withdraw from a course at any time by canceling their membership. To cancel, a member can visit nachi.org/cancel. A course withdrawal may be recorded as "Incomplete" on the student's transcript.

The determination of a course withdrawal will be effective on the earliest of the following:

- the date the student cancels their membership in InterNACHI; or
- the last day of participating in an academic activity within the course, if the student allows their membership to expire.

